

The LifePlan Initiative: A Workbook for Finding Your Purpose and Living Your Dreams

Everyone has a reason for existing. This is called a purpose. Purpose: the reason for which anything is done, created or exists. There is a difference between a functional life purpose and a spiritual life purpose. Your functional life purpose relates to what you came to do for the world. It is carried out by using your gifts and talents. Your spiritual life purpose relates to the lessons you came here to learn; it is what you came here to do for your soul. Your spiritual life purpose is carried out by growing through your trials and challenges and improving your negative habits. The LifePlan Initiative™ can assist you with carrying out both.
