

Spirits of the Border: The History and Mystery of Tombstone

Tombstone, Arizona is one of the most famous of the Southwest's mining boomtowns. The city was also one of the most violent of America's cities during the Wild West period. Within the confines of Tombstone's borders are stories of lost treasure, out of luck prospectors, and ever present specters. In this volume of Ken Hudnall's Spirits of the Border series you'll find out the real story behind the shootout at the OK Corral and track the ghosts that can't quite give up their earthly ties to that bloody day. Ken takes you to places that would have been well known to Wyatt Earps and his brothers. Boothill, the Wells Fargo Station, the Bird Cage Saloon, Tombstone's courthouse, and many other sites are covered in this text. You'll be able to meet the ghosts of historic Tombstone, Arizona, a town too tough to die.
