

You're Not Fired as a Result of Mergers, Acquisitions & Reorganizations

This book is a no non-sense, practical, how-to-do book on surviving and even coming out ahead from mergers, acquisitions and reorganizations. The author has shared 29 years of first-hand experience during which he has survived through seven mergers and several reorganizations and even moved up in the company. The book has provided an in-depth discussion on pre-merger activities and three phases of merger, acquisition and reorganization activity. The book also provides work sheets to assess where one is in doing the right things during merger, acquisition and reorganization. The reader will benefit in his or her career by following the teachings of this book.
