

Algarve Blues

A steamy summer holiday in Portugal turns out to be more than the Hilliard family bargained for! Gerry Hilliard soon finds himself swept off his feet and away from his unsuspecting family by an alluring blues singer, Honey Nightingale. David Hilliard has decided to use the holiday to grow apart from his twin, Michael, and plans on spending his days at the villa of his new girlfriend, Beverley Reece-Murphy. She wants to show him the real Portugal and Michael is not invited. Romantic interludes in the hot sun prove to be more than David can handle. Then there is the additional problem of Caro Kane, his ex-girlfriend, who has accompanied his sister, Jennifer, to nurse a broken heart. But hearts can mend and as sea, sun and sand begin to work their magic, the tables turn for Caro and Michael as they discover their mutual misery can lead to friendship. Algarve Blues charts fourteen days of fun, tears, holiday romance and the making and the breaking of friendships.
