

Articles from the Edinburgh Review (1819-37): Bibliography of the Published Writings of J.R. McCulloch (Economic Theory and Policy)

As a predominant contributor for about two decades, McCulloch's Edinburgh Review contributions were widely read and undoubtedly influential. McCulloch's articles centered around subjects such as economic growth and prosperity, the banking system, public finance, the condition of labour and the freedom of trade. A comprehensive bibliography of McCulloch's extensive writings, as well as secondary literature, is also included in this book.
