

A Teachers Hand-Book of Moral Lessons (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from A Teachers Hand-Book of Moral Lessons This book has been written to illustrate the lessons outlined for Standard V. in the Graduated Syllabus of Moral Instruction for Elementary Schools, issued by the Moral Instruction League, and is largely based on Notes of Lessons furnished by various teachers on forms supplied for the purpose by the League; indeed, one or two of the lessons are practically only transcripts of such Notes. Although specially arranged for one standard, it is hoped that, pending the issue of further volumes, the book will be found of general usefulness. An endeavour has been made to indicate how Moral Lessons may be so given as to be, above all, interesting. It cannot be too clearly recognised that positive harm will be done if morality becomes associated in the mind of the child with half-hours of dull and disagreeable maxim-grinding.
