

51 Ways to Win That Womans Heart 100%

If you are looking at this book now and you are a man, there are four possible indications: You have been finding it difficult to find a wife. You already have a fiancée or wife but you feel she does not love you enough. You are just curious. You want to verify if you have been doing these Fifty One things already. You have a friend who has this frustration and you are willing to learn on his behalf. If you are a woman and you are also reading this book, there are three possible indications: You have a friend or a brother who is finding it hard to win that woman's heart. You have been hurt several times, yet you keep giving your heart out most times to the wrong man. So, you want to learn the ways of men in order to know how to defend your heart and give some to the right man. The third indication is also curiosity. You just want to know how much effort your man has put into winning your heart. The purpose of this book is to solve relational problems and build intimacy among spouses. There are thousands of good women out there who are waiting for men to take the correct actions but it is either the men are still not taking such actions or they are simply taking the wrong ones. And because the women have good moral values, they cannot make the first move lest their legitimate pride gets trampled on. There are also thousands of men who are falling short of their responsibilities in sustaining their partners affection.
