

Finishing History Well

How Should Our Generation Live During the Climax of History? We live in a fragile world. Massive economic, spiritual, and political changes seem inevitable. Realistic prospects for a sustainable peace in the Middle East are more elusive than ever. How should we view the times in which we live? Will our generation witness the return of Jesus Christ to establish His leadership on the earth? The Finishing Well Series tackles serious subjects in an easy to read style for anyone desiring to live with understanding and purpose in these perplexing and challenging times. Finishing Life Well Following the Leadership of Jesus - is about developing a personal and communal lifestyle based on the Sermon on the Mount values of Jesus Kingdom. The Bible is not merely an ancient book of ideas; it is Gods storyline for every generation. Finishing History Well Preparing for the Leadership of Jesus gives an overview of major biblical End Time views and their implications. Paul Hughes also touches on how other religions, the arts, and philosophies imagine how human history will end. Will Cities Finish Well? Regional Transformation under the Leadership of Jesus is coming in 2013. Cities are where the cultures of this world battle for the highest ground. The eternal values of Jesus Kingdom conflict with the passing values of this world. Will cities shine with bright righteousness in a darkening world before the return of Jesus? Before founding Kingdom Forerunners in 2007, Paul Hughes served more than 25 years with the interdenominational campus ministry of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Paul and Lucy have been married for more than 30 years. They have three sons, one who is married, and live in Birmingham, Alabama.
