

Intuitions and Summaries of Thought (Classic Reprint)

American Review, under the title of Thoughts, Feelings, and Fancies, in 1846; a larger proportion, in a volume bearing the same title, was published in 1857; and a lesser, under the title of Suggestions, contributed to the Atlantic Monthly, in 1858. The rest is new. Altogether, the excisions, revisions and additions are so numerous, and the form of presentation of the subject-matter is so modified, that this may be regarded as substantially a new work. In the preface to his former volume, the author indicated the secret history of its production. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
